In one account (Matthew 14:24-25), the Savior is walking on the sea of Galilee as the wind is churning up rough waves. Get the picture? Jesus, buffeted by wind, is walking on the jagged surface of the sea. (Since the text says "walking," we needn't think that he was floating across the water like a hovercraft.) And Peter also is walking unsteadily in the wind, struggling forward on the roiling sea toward Jesus like a man tipsy from draining too many wineskins.

Walking on Water Quotes Showing 1-30 of 92 | In a very real sense not one of us is qualified, but it seems that God continually chooses the most unqualified to do his work, to bear his glory. If we are qualified, we tend to think that we have done the job ourselves.

Walking on Water Quotes by Madeleine L'Engle

REFLECTION. A most strange gospel story | Jesus walks on the water. It's the type of gospel that suits a decision time, a time of deep trust | an invitation to come to the water; not to be afraid. It's about trusting in Jesus, when there is nothing else. If you have human help, it's great | but not the same as trusting in God.
